While I am held captive', Azov Battalion holdout reveals last photos before leaving Azovstal stronghold

Dmytro 'Orest' Kozatskyi of Azov Battalion took to Twitter to show his last photos before he his final stand site at Azovstal steelworks.

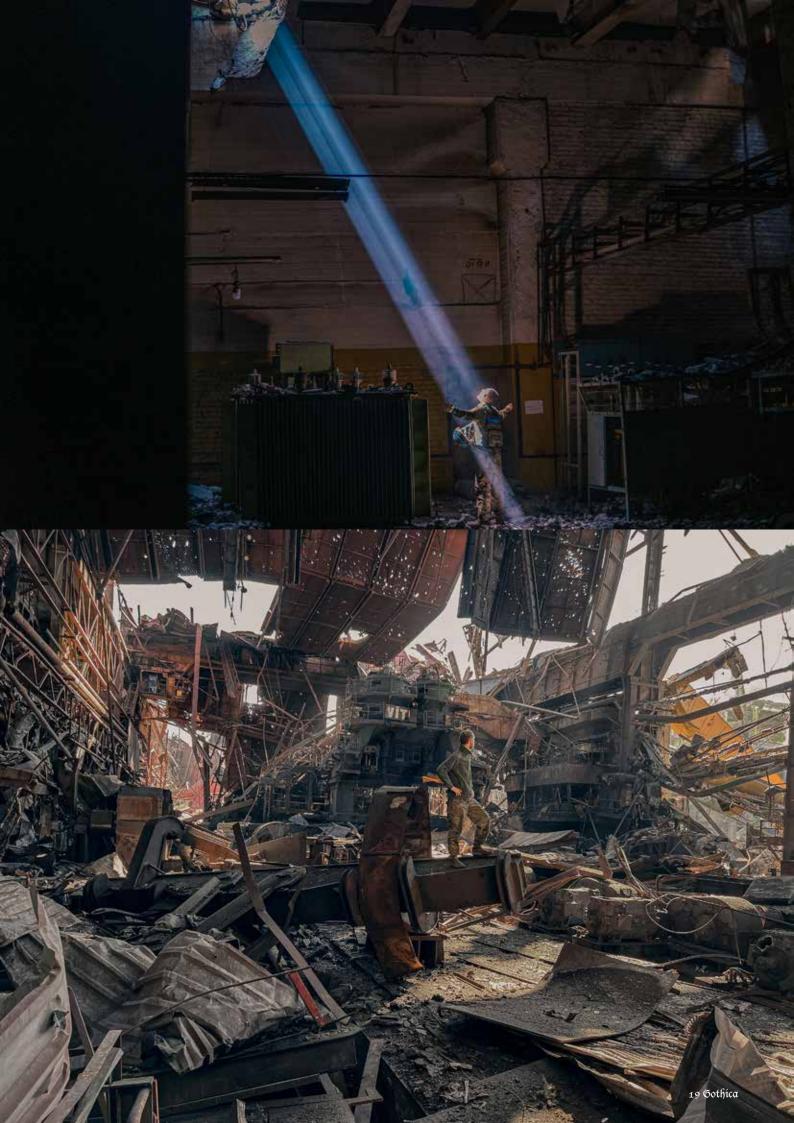

26-year-old soldier reached out to his followers asking them to share his photography portraying the months' long siege of Azovstal.

Kozytski said he posted 'high-resolution' images so they could be sent to photography contests and seen by wider audience.

'If I win something, it will be an exciting thing', added the soldier.

He also thanked people for support to Azov Battalion, adding hopeful 'see you' in the end.

Here, we post about our music, our band, our fans. However, since the invasion of Ukraine by Putin, we also post in support of Ukraine, all people who dare to stand up against the invasion and those who dare to fight for freedom and peace.

Since the Cold War, the world hasn't been so close to a nuclear war and no matter how small everyone might feel right now, all protests together will make an impact.

We will be playing a song during the International Charity Concert-Marathon aimed at supporting Ukraine and named Save Ukraine – #StopWar.

It will be aired on TVP this Sunday and rebroadcasted in 20 countries. Check out all the information here: https://saveukraine.1plus1.ua/ | Atlas Weekend

We're honoured to be participating in the SAVE UKRAINE - #StopWar charity concert tomorrow with a special performance. Tune in from 17:30 CET (18:30 Kiev time), and head here for more info:

https://saveukraine.1plus1.ua/

- It's time to act, instead of just talking -

Side-Line presents you «Electronic Resistance», a 55-track compilation featuring darkwave / post-punk acts from the Ukrainian underground scene only.

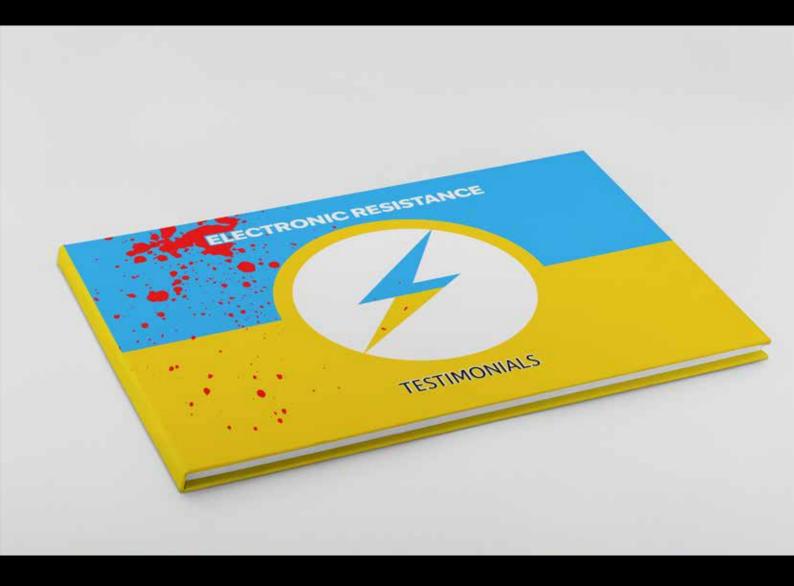

Compiled in the past few weeks in - extremely - difficult conditions it offers you an insight into the Ukrainian dark underground and also reflects what all of them are going through. It suffices to see some of the titles to understand what we mean.

The compilation features artists from allover Ukraine, from Odesa, Kyiv, Kharkiv, Dnipro, Mariupol, etc.. Many of them are right now in the frontline, or help in all kind of services from the fire departement to field hospitals. Others are distributing food, others have been forced out of their destroyed homes.

All donations will go to the bands involved and/or a humanitarian project of their choice. Now it is up to us to support them. Although this is a free compilation, we do encourage everyone to be very generous.

The release goes hand in hand with a photo book which will act as a testimonial of every band participating in this compilation. The release of this book is planned for early May as everyone pre-ordering the photo book by mid-April will be added in the credits as sponsor. You can also support the artists by getting your 'Electronic Resistance' T-shirt, or a packet holding both the photo book and the T-shirt.

«It has been a very confronting job to compile this release. Here I was sitting at home replying to messages from musicians who were at the frontline ... I knew things were bad, but being confronted in direct with this horror is a punch in the face. We all complain about high prices at the gas station, me included, but that's really nothing compared to what the Ukrainian people are going through right now.

The book that we will publish will even be a bigger confrontation for many. There you will see the musicians whose music you listen to. You will see how they are just like you and me. With this difference, they live in a country invaded by an agressor and they live in constant fear.

Some of the material has been recorded in pretty hefty conditions, including at least one during bombardments on Kiev. Other musicians lost all of their gear and files and only had rough material left which Erlend Eilertsen (Lights A.M, Essence Of Mind) worked on to restore to the best sound possible.»

Over the years we've been touring in most Ukrainian cities, that we see being destroyed now. Our thoughts go to all the people suffering from this tragedy.

we were supposed to announce information about the festival this week, but in light of the current situation in Ukraine, where a terrorist invasion from Russia is taking place, we feel it would be inappropriate to do so.

Therefore, we would like to reassure you and say that the festival will take place and further information about the line-up will be published later.

In the meantime, let's focus on the more important topic, which is the aforementioned act of aggression - both as a festival and privately, we are against violence and aggression in any form.

We hope that European countries will unite in action and bring the murderers led by Putin to justice.

Some of you have asked if there is anything you can do to help the Ukrainian people. We suggest choosing one of the organizations which specialize in such assistance, e.g. project "SOS Ukraine" organized by PAH.

We also encourage you to support local collections, which are organized in practically every city.

Let goodness and Ukraine win!

Putin! Our message is crystal clear!

A day of shame A day of despair A day of failure

Who can still feel safe in Europe if a country doesn't accept borders?

We don't need to tighten sanctions, we need to isolate this country. Even if it is expensive for us. There is no more appearement. There are no more conferences. There is only exclusion.

Russia is responsible. Putin is a criminal. Ukraine is not his first victim. If we don't act, it won't be his last.

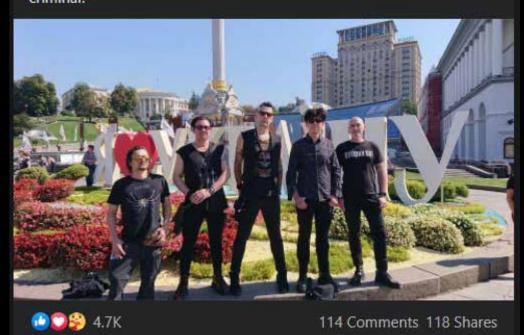

Yesterday was the last day of peace? We ignored the war against Ukraine for 8 years. And Putin continued. And he will continue. No peace in Europe is possible with this Russia.

I am not calling for a handshake with Ukraine. I appeal to decent Russians to free themselves from this regime.

It breaks our heart to see what is happening in the Ukrain. We were there last September 2021 and had a chance to meet with so many warm friendly people. We wish you all lots of strength in these dire times. Who could have imagined this would happen in 2022. It's criminal!

We will release a brand new song named "Save Our Souls" from on today. All proceeds will go to charities of our choice who support the effort in the Ukraine. If you have also any suggestions you can post them here. We will keep you in the loop about this. We hope you will support this. Thank you so much in advance. Please spread this as much as possible! DEFENDING UKRAINE TOGETHER by savelife.in.ua 068 500 88 00

How Come Back Alive Helps

Our fund supports the Armed Forces of Ukraine through financing purely defence initiatives. Since 2014 we have provided around 1000 thermal imagers and over 250 UAVs. In addition to the material support, we increased technological capabilities of the Army through providing 1,500 tablets with Armor software aimed at stopping the artillery.

Come Back Alive also organizes trainings to equip our military with crucial skills. In 2015 we launched trainings for medical workers, artillerists, snipers, minesweepers, and defence analysts. After coming back from the front line, our military members have access to sport rehabilitation and veteran business opportunities.

Our organization does not use funds for purchasing arms. Our mission is limited to supplying technology, trainings, and accouterments to help save lives of Ukrainians and help our warriors defend Ukraine.

Russia has invaded Ukraine — the Shield of Europe. As we are protecting the World against the tyranny, it's high time to demonstrate your support of peace and democracy in Ukraine and around the world.

What's Happening In Ukraine:

On February 24th, 2022, Russia began a full-scale invasion of Ukraine. This is the big war in Europe. Putin is using aviation, artillery, and missiles. Cities are being bombed with battles happening across the country.

8 years ago, Russia annexed the Ukrainian territory of Crimea and invaded the Donbas region of Ukraine, and has since intensified efforts to destabilize Ukraine.

Russia will keep on going until stopped by a substantial military resistance.

Keith here, on behalf of myself and all members of Cruachan we want to announce that we will no longer be selling our own merchandise to Russia and will not engage with Russian media when our new album is released.

Two weeks ago I was completely against this type of action but today has just tipped me over the edge - people killed waiting for bread and killed while taking refuge in a theatre. The atrocities being committed by Russia on Ukraine is disgusting. Every single day there is a new war crime to see, more crying children, more dead mothers. It's horrendous.

I know, and accept, that most Russian people have no idea what's going on and still remain good people, unfortunately for most (not all) - they are good 'brainwashed' people due to the extreme control of the state, they are not seeing this war. Cruachan have toured Russia ten times, we've made lifelong friends there and we love playing concerts there which makes this type of action from us even harder. But it's the right thing to do at this time.

We're just a small band from Ireland, maybe nobody will care or notice but if we can make just one person in Russia ask themselves 'why are Cruachan doing this?' and they then take the time and effort to find out what is happening in Ukraine in their name, then it will have been worth it.

The name 'Russia' is being destroyed, it is covered in the blood of thousands of innocent Ukrainian civilians. We hope Russia sees sense and ends, not only the war, but its authoritarian rule on its citizens. As soon as Russia cops itself on we will of course remove these restrictions.

And to put it plainly: not being able to buy a Cruachan shirt (or an iPhone, or McDonalds) - you'll get over it; going to sleep and dying because a Russian jet bombed your apartment, well ... do we need to say anymore?

It's Bandcamp friday!

As always we have lots of beautiful merchandise and music Your support is very appreciated and today we will donate 50% of the profit from our merch sales to the Icelandic Red Cross, that are actively helping Ukrainian refugees seeking shelter here in Iceland

https://kaelanmikla.bandcamp.com/merch

In time you'll see the line
The line that's drawn between Good and bad
See the blind man Shooting at the world
Bullets flying
Taking toll
If you've been bad
Lord I bet you have
And you've not been hit
By flying lead
You'd better close your eyes
You'd better bow your head
Wait for the ricochet

As a rule, Deep Purple is apolitical, but on this occasion...

Words of Roger Glover:

'Like many performers, we have occasionally performed private concerts for fans in various countries.

We are an apolitical band and in no way, was our intention ever political. It was music. These days are different. We condemn Putin's military for the atrocities to innocent men, women and children in Ukraine. and we apologize to our Russian and Ukrainian fans that the shows have been cancelled. We live in hope that we can fulfill those dates in the future.

Words of Don Airey:

Watching the news that Russian missiles have just destroyed the Opera House in Freedom Square Kharkiv, where DP played almost exactly 20 years ago, memorable for lan Gillan donning a tutu he found in a dressing room cupboard and proclaiming himself "Deep Purple in Frock", for the gear arriving at 7pm and somehow the show starting at 8pm, for an old apparatchik single-handedly trying to make the young audience sit back down during the set with such zeal that he had a seizure, and next day on the way back to the airport my asking about a statue "Is that Lenin?", Roger Glover replying, "Well it's definitely not McCartney". A different day today I have just written to Dmitri Medvedev, former President and now head of the Russian Security Council, returning the autograph he gave me at the dinner for Deep Purple at the Gorky Palace in March 2011, in protest at his various statements post invasion.

Words of Ian Gillan:

If speaking out means we shall never see our Russian friends again, then that is a big sacrifice, but nothing compared with never again seeing our Ukrainian friends who are being killed to satisfy the psychopathic ambitions of the Russian leader. I would like to see Russians on the streets in their millions, to show their disgust at the Ukrainian invasion, and I'd like to dream that very quickly, Russia can find some modern leadership that will bring them back into the world as friends. We have so much in common.

Words of Ian Paice:

What's happening is beyond distressing. It's criminal and should be treated as such. The invasion of Putin's army into Ukraine, (because that's what it is), I hope will turn out to bring his ultimate downfall. And that someone who is "functioning mentally in the 21st century", can lead the Russian people back into the fold.

Words of Steve Morse:

I've always thought music should be non-political, and cross every border as the universal language. As a citizen of a deeply divided country, one thing here that everybody agrees on is: Stop this attack on a Country who voluntarily disarmed their nukes to satisfy all the big players. Stop, lower your guns, turn back, help others on the way back!

Combining the legendary rock song with the unique sound of Ukrainian folk, we created «In The Shadows of Ukraine»

Original lyrics: «They say that I must learn to kill before I can feel safe, but I'd rather kill myself than turn into their slave.» - reflects the feelings of Ukrainians during the long war in their country.

Our mission is to let as many people as possible know about this war and the courage of the Ukrainian people. That's why we decided to shoot a video for this song.

We believe that «The sun will rise, and all enemies will disappear».

Glory to Ukraine!

I will count the income in the upcoming days and we will let you know how much it finally was, plus we will surely show you the proof of payment. We have chosen to support Ukrainian children who run from the atrocities of war. This cause is 100% legit and we are sure they will get the money you have all raised here. You are all AMAZING. oomphband Unsere Gedanken sind bei den mutigen und tapferen Menschen in der Ukraine, die für Ihr Recht auf Frieden, Freiheit und Souveränität kämpfen und unter diesem schockierenden Angriff leiden. Unsere Gedanken sind aber auch bei den Menschen in Russland, die trotz drakonischen Strafen, den Mut haben, zu protestieren. Krieg ist nie eine Lösung! Our thoughts are with the courageous and brave people of Ukraine who are fighting for their right to peace, freedom and sovereignty and are suffering from this shocking attack. Our thoughts are also with the people in Russia who, despite draconian penalties, have the courage to protest. War is never a solution! Human rights, international law and freedom are inviolable. The sovereignty of a state must never be up for negotiation.

International Criminal Court opens Ukraine war crimes investigation

The chief prosecutor of the International Criminal Court said Wednesday he will immediately launch an investigation into allegations of war crimes, crimes against humanity or genocide committed in Ukraine.

Why it matters: Ukraine has accused Russian forces of indiscriminately shelling civilian areas and exploiting the definition of "genocide" as a pretense to invade. [continued]

I just wanted to write to say the Goths of Toronto, Canada stand with Ukraine.

At our Dracula's Daughter event on Saturday, (Toronto's oldest regular goth event) we raised $1500 for the Red Cross Ukrainian Humanitarian Crisis relief fund and we continue to do what we can to help raise awareness and oppose Putin's disinformation and propaganda.

Putin has started to say crazy things, literally accusing LGBTQ people of treason. Anyone who hears that should start to be able to see that he has become delusional. He has lost his mind and people in Russia must be starting to see the truth! The UN voted to condemn the invasion of Ukraine, and only Russian Federation, North Korea, Belarus and Eritrea opposed it. Nobody believes Putin's nonsense - we believe that he is completely insane and may use nuclear weapons so we are afraid to trigger a crazy megalomaniac with nuclear weapons.

If Putin is not stopped by Ukraine, he will not stop at Ukraine but with global nuclear war. Do not lose hope, do not give up the fight!

Best wishes you and every victim of war and tyrants. Slava Ukraini!

Aesthetic Perfection

Posted by Daniel Graves 2h ⋅ •

When the pandemic hit in 2020, I set every one of my releases on Bandcamp to "pay what you want". The goal was to make my music accessible to everyone, without any kind of paywall. If someone was struggling, they were free to download my music... well... for free. If someone was doing okay, and wanted to toss some money to an independent artist, well, that was fine with me, too.

Now we're here in 2022, and I've decided that my art will remain free. I believe that art (and especially music) has the power to change the world, and to unify mankind in a way that nothing else can. My goal with Aesthetic Perfection has always been to focus on how we are all alike, instead of how we are different. I believe in using music as a force for good in the world.

Today, Bandcamp is waiving their fees and giving artists 100% of the money they earn during these 24 hours. I've chosen to donate every single penny I make today to the Ukrainian Red Cross. They are doing excellent work right now, on the ground, giving aid to the Ukrainian people who need it. So today, and today only, I'm asking you to BUY my music.

EVERYTHING WILL BE UKRAINE Charitable RAVE 21.05.2022 Cherkasy, Ukraine

For the first time since the beginning of the mass military aggression of Russia on the territory of Ukraine in Cherkasy there was a rave of electronic music which featured patriotic tracks that have become cult, in the styles of techno, breakbeat, drum-n-bass and EDM.

It will be a powerful 4-hour musical cocktail, including top songs by Javelin, Chornobaivka, Bayraktar and Good Evening, we are from Ukraine, as well as other tracks that became especially relevant during the war. The event was supported by residents of many underground formations of electronic and industrial music known far beyond Cherkasy - Cherkasy drum and bass RAVE, techno label Entrance the Void, Energy Festival, and Gothica magazine: IZVNE, Featon, Alex LanS, Cyberdies, Volten, Jonfly, Tomas.

All funds raised at the event are directed to targeted assistance for Cherkasy residents participating in the struggle for freedom of Ukraine!

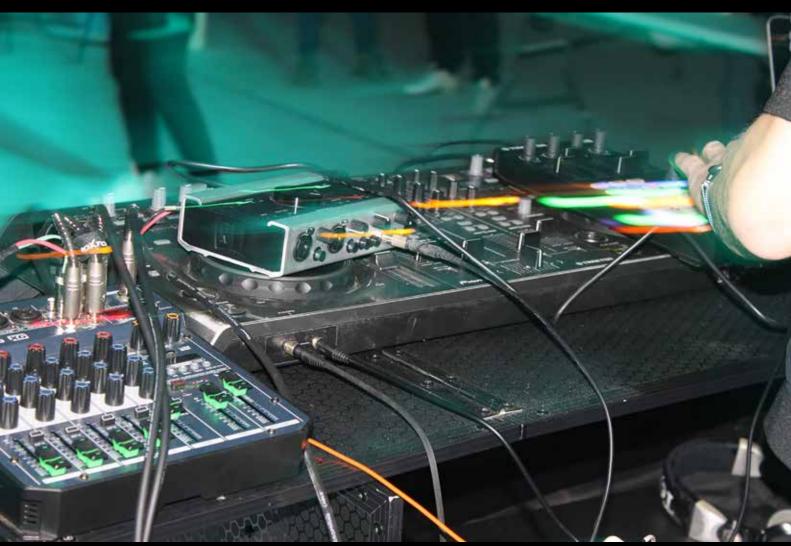

It has been heartwarming to see the support from sport, film, business, airlines actively boycotting Putin's Russia and Lukashenko's Belarus due to their criminal invasion. They are committing war crimes against humanity by actively targeting civilians, butchering 1000's of men, women and children and also creating the fastest and what will be the biggest refugee crisis in history. There are 44 million people in Ukraine so things will get a lot worse.

Music is the most important language on the planet. It unites many people and brings us all together. People who have no regard or care for the suffering of Ukrainians, have lost their right to be included in the beautiful world of music. I am very disappointed in the silence from bands, artists, djs and promoters- silence is not an option. It shows support for Putin's Russia and their aggression, their killing of innocent civilians, the threat of using nuclear weapons, the active targeting of nuclear facilities, their countless crimes against humanity, their genocide as we all sit on the verge of World War III.

I call on all bands, artists, musicians, djs and promoters to boycott Putin's Russia and not to play, organise concerts or let your music be streamed there, until the Russian people rise up and remove Putin and Russian troops get out of Ukraine. It's not enough to just cancel gigs. You need to state you are against this racist tyrant.

Music fans can play their part, it doesn't matter what genre of music you listen to, just contact your favourite international touring artist on social media with the following text:

"Please do not play Putin's Russia until the Russian people rise up and remove Putin and Russian troops leave Ukraine. Thanks".

Bands and artists who have kept quiet like Depeche Mode, Rammstein, U2, Ozzy Osborne, Marilyn Manson, Scooter, Onyx, Natalia Orerio, NIN etc need to speak up and say they won't take Putin's Russian blood money to play there. They need to join the Rock Against Russian Aggression if they actively believe in human rights, they are against racism and genocide in Ukraine. No excuses do it F*cking now! Loosing access and inclusion in the world of music is nothing. Ukraine civilian lives are being lost to Putins bullets and bombs.

All those big bands and music multi-millionaires what are you doing to raise money to support the refugees?

FIRST PUTIN'S RUSSIA came for the passengers of Maylasaian airlines flight MH17 murdering 298 men, women and children. I did not speak out as I had no relatives on board.

THEN PUTIN'S RUSSIA came for the citziens of Crimea & Donbas
They annexed Crimea and occupied Donbas murdering men, women and childeren.
I did not speak out as I am not from Crimea or Donbas.

THEN PUTIN'S RUSSIA & LUKASHENKO'S BELARUS invaded Ukraine murdering men, women and children, comitting multiple war crimes against humanity.

Created millions of refugees forced to flee for their lives I did not speak up as I wasn't from Ukraine.

THEN PUTIN'S RUSSIA & LUKASHENKOS BELARUS came for me and all the bands, DJs and music fans. There was no-one left to speak for us.

SILENCE IS NOT AN OPTION!

Please feel free to share this and any images to raise awareness that the music industry needs to boycott Putin's Russia!

If you can support the humanitarian effort to help the women and children fleeing the genocide in Ukraine please see the below
